

FIRST CHECK IT OVER →	What type of source is this? (letter, photo, etc)	Who wrote or created the source?	When was it published?	Where was it published? Where does it take place?	Who is the audience?
------------------------------	---	----------------------------------	------------------------	--	----------------------

NEXT PUT IT IN CONTEXT ↓

What was happening when it was published?	How might the times have influenced this document?
---	--

READ IT CLOSELY →	Circle language or details that are used to carry the message.
--------------------------	--

NOW FIND AT LEAST ONE OTHER DOCUMENT THAT CONNECTS TO YOURS. ↓

Why do your documents connect?	List specific details in your document that connect to the other(s).
--------------------------------	--

After analyzing your source, what other questions do you have?